C) FROM OUR PARTNERS

Eurasia Program of the Social Science Research Council (SSRC)

Times of Trouble: Violence in Eurasia from Past to Present

New York City

April 4-6, 2008

Application Submission Deadline: December 17, 2007

The Eurasia Program of the Social Science Research Council (SSRC) invites proposals for a dissertation development workshop focusing on issues of violence in Eurasia. Graduate students at any stage of their dissertation process (from proposal to write-up) and from any disciplinary or interdisciplinary program in the humanities or social sciences are eligible to apply. We particularly encourage applicants who propose fresh theoretical perspectives and methodologies, and whose work speaks to a wide scholarly audience.

Participants are invited from, but not limited to the fields of anthropology, archaeology, economics, environmental studies, film and media studies, history, law, literature, politics, psychology, and sociology. Please note: only U.S. citizens and permanent residents are eligible to apply.

For detailed information, please visit the Eurasia Program online at
